

(BS) 635-5: 1999 (confirmed in 2015)

Parameters of ability for finishing, guidelines

This part of the standard specifies the methods for measuring and expressing the natural characteristics of wood and the defects arising from the manufacturing process of plywood.

This involves the number of natural characteristics and manufacturing defects, their diameter, length, width and their area.