

(BS) EN 313-1: 1996 (confirmed in 2015)

Plywood - Classification and Terminology - Classification

This standard lists the three main classifications for plywood.

General appearance

According to their construction

- veneer plywood, blockboard, laminboard or composites

According to their form and shape

- Flat or moulded

Principal characteristics

According to their durability

- For use in dry, humid or exterior conditions

According to their mechanical properties, surface appearance or condition

- Unsanded
- Sanded
- Prefinished
- Overlaid

Ultimate end user requirements

- Customised